

Concurrent Algorithms: Exercise 10

December 30, 2009

1 Problem

Devise an obstruction-free, anonymous algorithm that implements binary consensus using finite number of (unbounded) counters.

Reminder: a counter object implements two operations: inc, which increments the value of the counter and returns ok, and read, which returns the current value of the counter.